

THE SHELTON CHRONICLE

A newsletter for faculty and staff of Shelton State
Community College

March 15, 2002

IT'S SPRING BREAK TIME!

Health Fair Scheduled

Shelton State's annual health fair will be held Monday, March 18, from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the college's Wellness Center. Over 30 booths will be set up for the fair from the medical, fitness and beauty industries.

Free beverages and food will be available from Buffalo Rock Pepsi, Manna Grocery and the Bagel Station. There will also be a fitness and martial arts demonstration at noon. For more information, contact Milady Murphy, 391-2994.

NURSING PROGRAMS SEEK CONTINUED ACCREDITATION WITH THE NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR NURSING ACCREDITING COMMISSION

Representatives from the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission will be at Shelton State March 20-22 for an on-site evaluation of the Associate Degree Nursing Program.

The faculty and staff of the college along with the general public are invited to attend an open forum on March 21 from 3-4 p.m. in the D Rooms on the Martin Campus.

"We hope Shelton's faculty, staff, along with others from the community, will join us at this time," said Gladys Hill, director of Shelton's nursing programs.

"We look forward to the public's participation in this program. We thank everyone at the college for their continued support of the nursing programs.

"Together, we can continue to provide quality nurses to meet the needs of the West Alabama area," said Hill.

Cochrane Named Dean of Instruction

Camille Cochrane has been named the new dean of instruction for Shelton State, according to Rick Rogers, president.

A native of Northport, Cochrane is a graduate of the University of Alabama, receiving her B.S. and M.A. degrees in mathematics. She joined the faculty in 1979 as a mathematics instructor and served as the chair of the department from 1997-2001. While at Shelton, she has served as the project director for the minority science/mathematics improvement project from 1995-96 and coordinated

In this issue...

Health Fair Scheduled	1
Cochrane Named Dean of Instruction	1
College Receives Grant for Technology Training .	2
Shelton Receives Additional Funds	2
'Round the Campus	2
Jubilee Jottings	2

developmental mathematics for the college from 1998-2001.

In 2000 she received the Dr. and Mrs. John Todd Award for Exceptional Achievement in Teaching.

College Receives Grant for Technology Training

The Alabama Public School and College Authority Board recently notified the college that Shelton will receive $41,000 in funding that will be used to develop a state-of-the-art computer lab for technology training. The new lab will be located in the Business and Industry Training Center.

The Money for the lab was approved by Governor Don Siegelman along with support from board members Dr. Henry C. Mabry, Dr. Donald Williamson, and Dr. Ed Richardson. State Senator Phil Poole was instrumental in acquiring the funds.

Shelton Receives Additional Funds

Shelton State will receive a $125,000 grant through the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program. The grant was approved through the office of the Governor and the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs. Senator Phil

Poole was instrumental in securing the grant for the college.

Money from this grant will be used to pay for overtime traffic enforcement for 10 West Alabama counties. Shelton State serves as the sponsoring agent for the area. Maxie Thomas, director of the West Alabama Highway Safety Office, will administer the grant.

This project was supported by Sub-grant #01-TF-LO-006 awarded by the Law Enforcement/Traffic Safety Division of Adeca, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice and the National Highway Safety Administration.

'Round the Campus

*Honors Night this year will be Tuesday, May 7. Applications for division and department awards may be picked up on the Martin Campus from the Counseling Center or from Pam Davis. Applications may be picked up on the Fredd Campus from Katherine Williams.

*Web registration begins April 15. Students will be able to register and pay online.

*Congratulations to Shelton State student Justin Bagley. Justin was recently named All USA Academic Third Team for Community and Junior Colleges.

* Premier Marketing of Tuscaloosa was recently selected the advertising firm who will work with Shelton State over the next several years.

* The Alabama State Board of Education will hold a meeting on Shelton State's Martin Campus on Thursday, April 25.

Jubilee Jottings

All of the committees working on the Shelton State Jubilee, the celebration of the college's 50th anniversary, are meeting on a regular basis.

We are looking for any film or video footage that we might use. We are also looking for old photographs that might be available. If you have any information concerning any of these items, please call Lucy Kubiszyn, ext. 2221.

Plans are already underway for Homecoming 2002 which will be held on Saturday, November 16. This year's Homecoming will include a large reunion and reception for former students. The reception will be held in the afternoon from 3-5 p.m. preceding the annual basketball game and crowning of the 2002 homecoming queen. The music department is planning a concert on Sunday, November 17, featuring current and former Shelton Singers.